

Open Studio is a recurring workshop at Aarhus Film Workshop. The purpose of the course is to give actors and directors the opportunity to meet each other and grow together. The workshop teaches directors a language to better their results when working with actors. The lessons will focus on repetition and activities plus text (dialogue).

The last Open Studio Workshop was held in March 2015 where Ditte Maria le-Fevre gave lessons in the Meisner technique. She also taught useful tools in relation to film, TV, casting and stage presence.

The workshop has since been run by a number of users of Aarhus Film Workshop. They meet once a week to practice the Meisner technique. The participants try to understand the technique in order for them to be able to teach them

You can sign up by writing to the coordinator Tue Lodberg Nyland at tuelnyland@gmail.com

The workshop will be held at Brobjergskolen every Tuesday from 17:00 – 19:00
